FSSP meeting with His Holiness, Pope Benedict XVI: On July, the Pope met with the FSSP Superior General, the Very Rev. John Berg, FSSP, and other Fraternity priests at a private audience in his library. Among other things, the Pope expressed his desire that the Fraternity offer "complete care" for the souls of our apostolates. See posting (article and photos) in the vestibule.

Annual picnic: St. Michael's Latin Mass Community's annual picnic is scheduled for Sunday, August 2 after the 10:00 am mass until 4:00 pm at Storybook Island shelter across from Sioux San Hospital. All food and ice-cream will be provided. Desserts are welcome. Everybody is welcome. Call Lydia (348-4051), if you have questions.

Recommended books: The book Fr Hathaway is currently referencing for his sermons on love of neighbor is The Catechism Explained by Rev. Francis Spirago and edited by Richard Clark, SJ. It contains a Nihil Obstat from Arthur J. Scalon and an Imprimatur from his Excellency Bishop Patrick Hayes. It rightly bills itself: "A practical manual for use of the preacher, the catechist, the teacher, and the family." Though an old book, first printed 1899, it is filled with perennial truth in very accessible and engaging manner. Available from TAN Books and Publishing, Inc.; ISBN 0-89555-497-6. The other books he mentioned are the 1934 high school text series by Fr. John Laux also re-published by TAN: Chief Truths of the Faith, Mass and the Sacraments, Catholic Morality, Catholic Apologetics, and a book of his which stands alone Introduction to the Bible. The books have the same Nihil Obstat and Imprimatur as above. All these books will make a fine addition to your library and serve as constant reference material.

Reminder: committee meetings (6:30 pm) and Parish Council meeting (8:00 pm) on Monday, July 13 at the basement of OLPH Cathedral.

ON THE GOSPEL

And they took up what was left...

Justly it is said of the multitude that though they could not partake of the fragments of the Lord's supper which remained, yet they did eat and were filled. For there are those who, though unable to leave all things, and take up upon them what is laid down for virgins: He that can take it, let him take it (Mt19:12, 21, 22), and other things of this kind, nevertheless, by eating and drinking justice are filled; when through obeying the commandments of the law of God they attain to eternal life, by the grace and favor of Jesus Christ our Lord, Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost lives and reigns God for ever. Amen.

~ St. Venerable Bede; Priest, Confessor, Doctor; 672-735.
