FYI on Stipend Masses: Fr. Hathaway has mass intentions through November. If you wish a mass offered, write him a note with the intention and current date. Your name will not be listed as the requestor unless you ask him to post it in the bulletin. Also, write out any stipend checks to "Fr. Hathaway"; stipend masses are $10.00 in the diocese of Rapid City. (Of course, if you are unable to pay the stipend, Fr. Hathaway will still offer your intention.)

Liturgical note: Ember days follow the third Sunday of September, and no longer the Exaltation of the Cross.

5. Swearing. By this is meant the use of holy names in a moment of anger as an imprecation against certain persons or things.

For instance parents, when angry, wish ill to their children, using the name of God or of heaven; workmen call down evil on the tools they employ. Out of the mouth of a Christian none but blessings should proceed (1 Pet. iii. 9). Should the same mouth wherewith we pray, wherewith we receive the sacred body of the Lord, be employed to curse our neighbor and offend against God?

A man who indulges the bad habit of swearing commits many sins, and is in danger of eternal perdition.

As one tells from the language a stranger speaks of what country he is a native, so when oaths flow freely from a man's lips, one may conclude he belongs to hell; there is reason to fear that he does not belong to the kingdom of God, for he talks the language of hell. The Fathers used to consider swearing as a sign of perdition. Those who curse shall perish (Ps. xxxvi. 22); they shall not possess the kingdom of God (1 Cor. vi. 10). Ordinary swearing is a venial sin, provided no serious evil is worked to one's neighbor, yet it is a greater sin than taking God's name in vain, because not only is it a disrespect towards God, but an offence against charity.

ON THE GOSPEL

And one of them when he saw that he was made clean...

This one who went back giving glory to God is a figure of the one Church, in devout humility before Christ. He falling down before the feet of the Lord, gives fitting thanks. For he truly gives thanks to God who repressing the thoughts of his own presumption, is humbly aware of how weak he is in himself; he who attributes no virtue to himself; who confesses that the good he does, is due to the mercy of his Creator. Hence, fittingly, He adds: And this was a Samaritan ~ St. Bede; priest, Confessor & Doctor of the Church; 672-735.
