The traditional home Epiphany Blessing is offered to homes requesting it through the former octave (Jan. 6 through Jan. 13). Otherwise you may take Epiphany water*, blessed chalk, and a ceremony pamphlet (all available back of church) and apply this sacramental to your home.

Please pray for Casey Fanning, nephew of Cami Blair, who recently died in a car accident; Thomas Flood, father of Fr. Eric Flood (FSSP District Superior), who recently died with the blessing of his priest son at his side; Patrick Peterson who is dying (brother to our Pat Bowlby) and all the Peterson family.

FYI: An informal gathering takes place at the Carlson home following mass on Sundays from 2:00 to 3:00 pm. Fr. Hathaway leads a book reading on some topic of the faith. Currently, we are reading Fr. John Laux's high school text: Catholic Morality which covers sin, virtue, conscience, duties to God and neighbor and such like areas. You are welcome to attend these gatherings which meet at 3008 Morningside Rd; if you get lost, call 391-8307 for directions.

If you would like to temporarily house the statue of Our Lady of Fatima for use in your home devotions, e.g. family Rosary, please call April E. at 355-9829. This is the statue that was meant to be passed around our various households which, somehow, has now been stranded (not without welcome) at the Espericueta residence.

Depart, accursed fathers and mother! Depart into hell where the wrath of God awaits you, you and the good deeds you have done, while all the time you have let your children run wild. Depart into hell; they will not be long in joining you there.

~ St. John Vianney, Cure of Ars; special patron of priests and patron of all during this ecclesial year.

ON THE GOSPEL

And his mother said unto him, 'Son, what hast thou done?'

Why sought they sorrowing? Was it that he might have perished or been lost? It could not be. For what should cause them to dread loss of Him whom they knew to be the Lord? But as whenever you read the scriptures you search out their meaning with pains, not that you suppose them to have erred or to contain anything incorrect, but that the truth which they have inherit in them you are anxious to find out; so they sought Jesus, lest perchance leaving them He should have returned to heaven, thither to descend when He would. He then who seeks Jesus must go about it not carelessly and idly, as many seek Him who never find Him, but with much labor and sorrow.
