Sunday, Oct. 25 is The Feast of the Kingship of Our Lord Jesus Christ. There is no commemoration of the 21st Sunday after Pentecost. One may gain a plenary indulgence by the public recitation of the Act of Consecration of the Human Race to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We will do so after the sermon; copies are available at the entrances of the church.

See Peter go: Today, after holy mass the young adults of St. Michael's will host a potluck for Peter Bruch, to celebrate his entry into Clear Creek Monastery in Oklahoma. All are welcome. There will be a free-will donation box for his travel needs.

In your charity, please pray for: Patrick Bowlby, Garnet Peterson, Dave Robertson, and Renee Howell.

Televised former rite: Christ the King Catholic Church, the FSSP Apostolate in Florida, provides a live stream of their daily Mass on their website. While this does not fulfill your Sunday obligation, it can serve as a means to unite yourself to a Mass being offered if you are unable to attend because of health or distance. Visit www.ChristTheKingSarasota.org and click on "Video Stream" for details.

The early bird (7:00 am) mass returns: this week, on Tuesday, Oct. 27 and on Thursday, Oct. 29, mass will be at 7:00 am. This is a great opportunity for the weekday worker to avail himself of holy mass before going to the office.

Reminder: next week daylight saving time ends.

“This kingdom is set forth in the gospels as one which men enter by doing penance and cannot enter except by faith and baptism, which, though an exterior rite, signifies and effects interior rebirth. His kingdom is completely opposed to the kingdom of Satan and the powers of darkness. It demands that its followers be detached from riches and from things of the world, that they be gentle-mannered, and that they hunger and thirst after justice; it demands further that they deny themselves and take up their cross.”

~ Pope Pius XII in Quas Primas (wherein he established The Feast of Christ the King) Dec. 11, 1925.

ON THE GOSPEL

My kingdom is not of this world.

When He had shown that His kingdom is not of this world, He added:
But now my kingdom is not from hence. He did not say: is not here, but is not from hence: for His kingdom is here, till the end of the world, have tares mixed with it until the time of the harvest; but nevertheless it is not from hence: for it is in the world as a stranger to it.

~ St. Augustine, Confessor, Bishop of Hippo, Doctor of the Church;
354-430.
